

Job Role: Design Intern

6 months

Full-time internship

Nxt Museum is the first fully-dedicated New Media Art Museum in The Netherlands. An immersive, multi-sensory, fine art destination that fuses art and technology to challenge assumptions, open minds and connect with what is Nxt. We are passionate about art, technology, science, innovation and are on a mission to push the boundaries of what a museum can be.

The Role:

This is your opportunity to grow with Nxt Museum. You will be part of the creative team based in our offices in North Amsterdam. Our Design Intern will be responsible for ideation, design, development and implementation of brand assets, marketing collateral and social media content. This is a unique chance to be part of the first museum in the Netherlands dedicated to new media art.

We are looking for a talented, self-motivated and strategic designer, with an absolute eye for detail and perfection. A strong all-rounder, the Design Intern will work closely with the Creative and Marketing teams to execute design options and solutions through digital, print and motion design. With a curious, creative and fresh mindset, the Design Intern explores forward-thinking solutions inline with our brand mission to constantly 'seek, show, question and debate what is next'.

Key Responsibilities:

- Support in the planning, creation and execution of Nxt Museum's creative and marketing content.
- Work with the creative team to dream up the next big creative campaign and brand communication assets.
- Collaborate with our Digital Marketing Specialists to produce assets for social campaigns.
- Create a diverse range of content (including videos, animations, images and print) for various digital and physical environments.
- Assist the creative team in photographing, filming and editing content for exhibitions, events and marketing collateral.
- Create killer presentations and brand focussed internal design assets.
- Offer your fresh perspective on design, arts and culture to continuously drive innovation at Nxt and engage and excite future generations.

Profile & Skills:

- Studying or a recent graduate of a design related subject.
- A strong all-round designer with a portfolio exploring brand identity, film, photography, motion graphics and creative ideas.

- Excellent typography skills and the ability to consistently work with Nxt Museums brand identity.
- Knowledge of Adobe Creative Suite and Keynote.
- Fluent in English, Dutch is nice to have
- An absolute team player
- Independent, quick thinker & solution driven.
- Flexible in mindset and working methods.
- Demonstrated energy, drive, determination and persistence. A hands-on attitude with the ability to multi-task.
- Curious, open minded and inclusive with a global and forward looking mindset.
- Passionate about art, culture and technology.

Why a Design Internship with Nxt Museum?

- This is a unique opportunity to work in a start-up environment in the founding stages of a new, forward looking, art institute.
- Nxt will give you an insight into working as a designer for a business in the creative sector.
- Skill development: a credible, progressive, exciting brand and experience that will help you grow.
- You'll be a part of the most exciting space for New Media Art, with access to the museum and our events programme as an added perk.
- You will be at the forefront of groundbreaking art, working with a brilliant and diverse team to help present, question and explore what is Nxt.

Your Application:

At Nxt we celebrate different mindsets, personalities and approaches. Therefore you should apply to this role in any way you wish – all we ask is you include:

1. A portfolio of your work displaying creative ideas and eye catching designs.
2. An accompanying note, video, sketch, poster or any format you'd prefer with which to tell us about yourself.

Deadline for applications: 19th March 2021

Internship to start: 1st April 2021 - depending on the lockdown
